The vessel struck sandy bottom 500 yards west of the wharf, and the waves soon broke over her. She became a total wreck. The vessel was owned by E. S. Babcock, Jr., of San Diego. General John F. Hartranft, formerly Governor of Pennsylvania, died October 17th. He was born in 1830 and was a prominent soldier in the Army of the Potomac. He was auditor of Pennsylvania in 1866, and Governor for two terms beginning in 1873. In 1876 and 1880 his name was before the Republican conventions for the Presidency.

The first of three fast steel steamers for a line between New York, Cuba and Mexico has been lauched on the Delaware. They are to be of good size and speed for cruising purposes, and a small Government bounty would have secured their adaptation to that purpose by a proper arrangement of their engines, the laying of gun tracks, etc.

C. P. Huntington and C. F. Crocker have sold their railroad which runs from San Jose de Guatemala, eighty-five miles in and, to the Guatemalan government for $40,000. The government will continue the road to Port Isabel on the Atlantic coast, which will give another tran-isthmian road to compete with the Panama line. The French will continue the road.

The delegates to the Pan-American Congress have had their attention drawn pretty forcibly to the Nicaragua Canal project on several occasions. At a banquet given in their honor at Cleveland, Ohio, Senaator Sherman urged the delegates to present its advantages to their governments. The San Francisco Chamber of Commerce on the 15th inst. also directed a memorial to the Congress in the same tenor.
